STRUCTURE NOTES

Single page, anchor nav

Hero → Disciplines → Gallery → Clients → About → Contact. Everything
reachable from the nav. No separate pages except individual project lightboxes.

Resume linking

URL parameters pre-filter the gallery. ?d=concept-art&c=microsoft opens the page with those filters already active. Clean, direct, no extra pages needed.

NFTs — separate consideration

NFT work is IP-adjacent (Zim, Angry Beavers, Star Trek).
Worth discussing whether it lives in the main portfolio or a separate section with context.
Hiring managers may have opinions.
